WHY BECOME A SPONSOR?

CIAJ's 45th Annual Conference is an excellent opportunity to tailor a sponsorship program that positions your organization as a committed leader in supporting the administration of justice in Canada. It could help you reach decision makers and prominent members from all branches of the legal community and across the country.

About our Conference

CIAJ's Conference on Indigenous Peoples and the Law will take place in Vancouver, from November 17–19, 2021, and will also be offered online. The program is designed for the judiciary, tribunal community, practitioners, and law professors. It also includes a special panel for law students, which is free and open to the public.

A multidisciplinary and bilingual legal network across Canada

Founded in 1974, the Canadian Institute for the Administration of Justice (CIAJ) promotes excellence and leadership in the administration of justice through knowledge, learning and the exchange of ideas. CIAJ offers Canada's legal community up-to-date education and research programs in both official languages and provides a forum for everyone interested in the administration of justice.
