

Administrative Law Webinar Series

NEW STANDARD OF REVIEW: THE ESSENTIALS

THURSDAY, JANUARY 30, 2020 | 11:30 AM–12:30 PM (EASTERN TIME)

REGISTRATION: <https://www.imakeanonlinedonation.org/ciaj-icaj/WEBAL1EN/>

PRICE: $35/person

SPEAKER

THE HONOURABLE JUSTICE DAVID W. STRATAS, Federal Court of Appeal

Moderator: Dr. Gerald Heckman, Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Manitoba

OVERVIEW

The Bell-NFL-Vavilov trilogy of administrative law appeals was finally released on December 19, 2019. We are still reflecting on the ins and outs, and yet it is already time to adapt. What are the essential elements, benefits and potential impacts? This webinar will help unravel the threads and take stock by addressing specific questions such as:

- When is the reasonableness standard applicable?
- What does reasonableness entail?
- Does Vavilov signal a return to a more intrusive approach?
- What is the significance of the specialized expertise of administrative decision-makers?
- What do “questions of central importance to the legal system as a whole” mean after the trilogy?

NOTE

Group viewing is recommended in a room (or rooms) with audio-visual equipment sufficient to accommodate the number of registrants expected at your location. A link to the webinar platform and a password will be sent by email 48 hours prior to the event. It is recommended to test the platform beforehand. Groups should register at the rate of $35 x the number of participants.

A French session conducted by The Honourable Justice Yves de Montigny will take place at 1 p.m, which requires a separate registration, available here: <https://www.imakeanonlinedonation.org/ciaj-icaj/WEBAL2FR/>
