

CREATING CULTURES BEYOND BIAS

MONDAY, JUNE 5, 2023 | 3:30 – 5 PM (EASTERN TIME)

Participation in this program is accredited in provinces where CLE requirements for lawyers are mandatory.

REGISTRATION: <https://www.imakeanonline.com/ciaj-icaj/P-330/>

PRICE: CIAJ or CCAT Members: $45 / Non-Members: $85 // Free if you register for the CCAT Symposium AND the CIAJ National Roundtable on Administrative Law

LANGUAGE: In English, with simultaneous interpretation

OVERVIEW

This webinar explains how biases do not necessarily emerge from strongly held prejudices. They may stem from unknowable associations and beliefs that we have not fully examined. Biases and stereotypes help us make sense of our world. They can be viewed as a choice; therefore, they can be overcome.

MODERATOR

- David Wright, Chair, Ontario Physicians and Surgeons Discipline Tribunal

SPEAKER

- Jessica Nordell, Award-winning Author and Science Writer; Author of The End of Bias

Jessica Nordell is an award-winning author and science writer known for blending rigorous science with compassionate humanity. She holds degrees in physics from Harvard and poetry from the University of Wisconsin. She has been a visiting scholar at MIT and is the recipient of a Gracie Award from American Women in Radio and Television, was named a Best New Poet by Tracy K. Smith, and was a 2022 featured speaker at SXSW.

This program is part of the first edition of the National Administrative Law Week, a CIAJ & CCAT joint event (June 5-9, 2023). Bonus: If you participate in this webinar and also attend either the CCAT Symposium or the CIAJ National Roundtable in person, you will receive a copy of The End of Bias: A Beginning by Jessica Nordell.

NOTE

A link to the webinar platform and a password will be sent by email 24-48 hours prior to the event. It is recommended to test the platform beforehand. Groups should register at the rate of $45 (CIAJ or CCAT Members) or $85 (Non-Members) x the number of participants.
