The Canadian Institute for the Administration of Justice Launches a Student Section

Montreal, August 24, 2017 – The Canadian Institute for the Administration of Justice (CIAJ) launches a Student Section aiming to provide a gathering place for all law students across Canada.

“In addition to building bridges between students, the Section is an exclusive learning platform, offering numerous networking opportunities and enriching meetings with key players in the Canadian legal arena,” says CIAJ’s Executive Director, Ms. Christine O’Doherty.

All law students enrolled full-time at a Canadian university are welcome to join in. Those who would like to get more involved with the Section are encouraged to postulate in order to become CIAJ’s student representative in their faculty. All details are available here: <https://ciaj-icaj.ca/en/membership/student-section/>.

Free Student Program at CIAJ’s 42nd Annual Conference

CIAJ’s 42nd Annual Conference focusing on cultural and religious diversity in the administration of justice will take place at the Hyatt regency Montreal from October 2 to 4, 2017. The event will be of interest to all members of the legal community and will bring together over 40 speakers from all across Canada, under the honorary presidency of the Hon. Nicole Duval Hesler, Chief Justice of Quebec. A free student program will follow the official conference on Wednesday, October 4, 2017, at 4:30 p.m. All details are available here: <https://ciaj-icaj.ca/en/training-programs/2017-annual-conference/>

About CIAJ

Since its inception in 1974, the Canadian Institute for the Administration of Justice (CIAJ) brings together individuals and institutions involved in the administration of justice and promotes excellence through knowledge, learning and the exchange of ideas. CIAJ offers multidisciplinary training programs designed for all stakeholders in the justice system, prepares reports and issues recommendations that could lay the groundwork for change.
