WHO WE ARE

The Canadian Institute for the Administration of Justice (CIAJ) is a non-profit organization which promotes excellence and leadership in the administration of justice through knowledge, learning and the exchange of ideas.

Since its inception in 1974, CIAJ has kept a critical eye on our justice system and explored cutting-edge issues likely to improve the administration of justice and preserve a strong and independent judiciary. The Institute offers multidisciplinary training programs designed for all stakeholders in the justice system and provides a forum for everyone interested in the administration of justice.

1,000+ members across Canada

Through participation of its members, CIAJ fosters excellence and leadership in the administration of justice. Become a member, participate in our activities and contribute to change!

Individual members active in their profession receive a preferred rate on all training programs in addition to other benefits. The majority of our courses are recognized by Canadian Law Societies. Our services are offered across Canada in both official languages.

Member benefits

Become part of a multidisciplinary organization

CIAJ is a non-profit, independent organization that links individuals and institutions involved in the administration of justice across Canada. Its work is multidisciplinary and wide-ranging. Collaborating with governments, courts, tribunals, professional associations, law schools and law firms, CIAJ sponsors and conducts conferences and specialized seminars and prepares comprehensive papers and reports. Its services are offered in both official languages.

No matter what your role is in the justice system or where you work, CIAJ's individual or institutional memberships offer you access to the people and resources required to build your career and make a difference in advancing the administration of justice.

Join a professional network across Canada and expand your practice

CIAJ members come from all regions of Canada and include members of the legal profession, the judiciary, professors and law students, legislative drafters, members of administrative tribunals, journalists, court personnel, representatives of government agencies, staff of social and police agencies and the public.

Join our 1,000+ members who enjoy debates and discussions on cutting-edge issues designed to improve the administration of justice. Access high-quality education, expand your network, engage in the community and seize the opportunity to share your knowledge.

Save up to $150 on programs and earn CPD hours

CIAJ delivers innovative programs prepared by committees whose volunteer members are leaders in their professions. Our signature programs suit all levels of experience and budgets. Programs are eligible for CPD hours in all provinces.

Our activities include:

- annual three-day conference on a cutting-edge topic;
- conferences and webinars on legislative drafting;
- seminars on administrative law;
- seminars on judgment writing;
- seminars for new federally appointed judges and for long-serving judges;
- roundtables;
- annual fellowship supporting research to improve the administration of justice.

Help train the next generation of justice ambassadors

Nothing is more rewarding than sharing your skills and experience with other professionals, and we offer you ample opportunity to do that. Come and assist us with planning events, mentoring law students, teaching workshops, leading seminars and contribute to educational resource development.

Be a powerful voice for the public

Get involved in shaping the administration of justice. CIAJ works hard to make a difference. Become a member and add your voice to the effort. Improving the administration of justice results in a more efficient justice system and ultimately, improves access.
