

THE CHRISTINE HUGLO ROBERTSON ESSAY PRIZE

The Canadian Institute for the Administration of Justice (CIAJ) provides law students with various tools and projects through its Student Section. In addition to building bridges between students across Canada, the Section is an exclusive learning platform, offering numerous opportunities for students to network and collaborate with key players in the Canadian legal arena.

A STIPEND OF $1,000...AND MUCH MORE!

The Christine Huglo Robertson Essay Prize for Law Students aims to engage law students in the work of CIAJ and to promote scholarship concerning the administration of justice. The winner will receive a stipend of $1,000 and be invited to CIAJ's 46th National Conference to be held in Halifax from October 26 to 28, 2022. The paper may also be presented on that occasion. CIAJ will provide the recipient with travel, accommodation and registration to the conference.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- 1. Be registered for an undergraduate degree (J.D., LL.B. or B.C.L.) at a Faculty of Law at a Canadian university;
- 2. Have written the paper in the twelve months preceding the closing date for submissions (papers submitted for academic credit may be submitted for this prize);
- 3. Provide confirmation of academic registration;
- 4. Provide a statement from the author confirming the date at which the text was finalized, and attesting that the paper has not been submitted elsewhere, in whole or in part, for publication or a prize;
