49TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Environment and the Law

OCTOBER 28-30, 2025
VANCOUVER

Each year, CIAJ supports research on a fundamental issue related to its annual conference. In 2025, the $9,000 Charles D. Gonthier Research Fellowship will focus on the theme of “The Environment and the Law”, echoing the theme of our 49th annual conference.

Open to faculty and graduate students at Canadian universities, the fellowship is designed to encourage innovative research that will shed light on the links between justice and contemporary environmental challenges.

About the Annual Conference

CIAJ’s 49th Annual Conference on Environment and the Law will critically examine the intersection of environmental crises, legal implications, and human rights. Vital to the discussion will be the issues of climate change refugees, immigration, land rights, and Indigenous people. The conference’s inclusive and multidisciplinary approach provides a platform for amplifying the voices of individuals and groups most affected and marginalized by environmental issues. This conference will foster dialogue aimed at understanding and addressing these issues, encouraging participants to contribute to crafting forward-thinking solutions. Together, we will explore the means to shape a legal environment that respects human rights, acknowledges the reality of environmental crises, and work toward a more sustainable and equitable future.

About Charles D. Gonthier Research Fellowship

CIAJ provides funds for the Charles D. Gonthier Research Fellowship, named in honour of the late Mr. Justice Charles D. Gonthier of the Supreme Court of Canada, a former President of CIAJ.

The $9,000 Fellowship was created in 2001 and supports research in relation to the topic of the annual conference.

Each conference focuses on a specific aspect of CIAJ's themes:

- Justice as a humanistic and social value
- Justice as a public service
- Justice in a global economy and interdependent world

ADMINISTRATION OF FUNDS

The funds are administered by CIAJ on behalf of the successful applicant and are available to support research assistance or other out-of-pocket expenses, but may not be used as an honorarium. It is expected that the completed research will be presented at CIAJ's 48th Annual conference in October 2024 (Winnipeg, MB).

The maximum amount of the Fellowship is $9,000. The selection of the project for the research fellowship will be made by a committee composed of the President of the CIAJ (or his/her nominee), one of the Co-Chairs of the Education and Research Planning Committee, and one other person selected by the Executive Committee.

Planting the Seeds of Justice

CIAJ is an independent, non-profit organization that links individuals and institutions involved in the administration of justice across Canada.

Since its founding in 1974, CIAJ has taken a critical look at our justice system and explored current issues aimed at improving the administration of justice and preserving a strong and independent judiciary.

In collaboration with governments, courts, tribunals, professional associations, law schools, and law firms, CIAJ sponsors and conducts multidisciplinary conferences, specialized seminars, tailored training sessions, national discussions on major issues, and prepares comprehensive papers and reports. Our services are offered in both official languages.
